V. Advisors Notes
Ms. Ross would like everyone to know that our Black Board page has been updated and hopes that we will use it often. She also informed the senate that if they knew anyone wanted to be Kapanga the Hawk then they should audition on Wednesday October 24th at 6:30pm in the Gym. The time has arrived for our mid-semester review so we must have our grade sheet in and have a meeting with Ms. Ross by October 26th. The Officer Review Committee must also meet with Ms. Ross to review their mid-term observations.

VI. Guest Speakers: NONE

VII. Public Forum: A student entered the office and was interested about joining the ASLPC.

VIII. Old Business:
A. Retreat
Mr. Marcelo asked for a final head count of all the people who will attend the retreat, the people who are interested in doing zipline and who plans on participating in the walk in tour. Ergo, the total number of people attending is 20 people, including Mr. and Mrs. Nash. The total expenses for the activities if we participate in the zipline will be $145. The supplies to bring are on dropbox and it was announced who would be driving and the people running the workshops.
- Mr. Sidhu moved to extend time by 5 minutes.
- Ms. Mitchell seconded
- Passed unanimously
Ms. Ross also went over the schedule and reminded the people working the workshops to create an evaluation form.

B. Club Day
Ms. Mitchell presented the outline of what the Haunted House will look like. There will be 3-4 people consisting a host, people scaring the students and another person following the group. Decorations will including hanging objects, animation, Halloween music, and cardboard cutouts; there will also be candy at each station. The only issue if finding a way to hang the drapes using barriers and tapestries were suggested.

C. Task Forces
Mr. Pinedo delegated Task Forces to every members and assigned leaders. Mr. Portugal for Community Outreach, Ms. Reynoso for High School Outreach, Mr. Haastrup for Campus Outreach and Mr. Pinedo for Public Health and Safety.

D. Follow Ups: NONE

E. Letters and Resolutions: NONE

IX. New Business:
A. Transfer Funds
- Mr. Sidhu moved to transfer $35,000 from the Student Activities Fund to the ASLPC.
- Mr. Haastrup seconded.
- Motion passes unanimously
• Mr. Sidhu moved to transfer $5,000 from the ASLPC to the Textbook Loaner Program.
• Mr. Haastrup seconded.
• Motion passes unanimously

B. Appreciation Gifts
Mr. Portugal suggested the idea that the ASLPC give gifts to several groups on campus that have helped us over the past years and have not been acknowledged; basically, all the behind the scenes workers. Gift ideas included goodie baskets, gift cards, etc. It was decided that we postpone this item to when we have more information about how much we will spend and the exact gifts.

X. Subcommittee Meetings.
• Ms. Aboud moves to extend the orders of the day at 1:53pm
• Mr. Sidhu seconded
• Motion passes unanimously.
• Mr. Pinedo moves to reinstate the orders of the day at 2:46pm
• Mr. Azraei seconded
• Motion passes unanimously

XI. Subcommittee Reports
Textbook Loaner:
Mr. Lopez and the rest of the subcommittee have been brainstorming ideas on flyers for awareness and scholarship prompts. They have also been trying to devise a system in which they can speak to professors and figure out exactly which books they are using.

Events:
Ms. Mitchell reported that during subcommittees the events walked to the Club Room to visualize exactly where everything would be in the Haunted House for Club Day. They also brainstormed more ideas for decorations and how to post them throughout the room.

Technology:
Mr. Adhikari reported that everyone in the Technology subcommittee has been appointed a specific task for the website and it is showing good progress. They have also sent an e-mail to the web developer.

Legislation:
Mr. Marcelo informed the senate that the legislative subcommittee had a cram session regarding all the Propositions on the California ballot and what it means if each one passes. They also talked to about how to spread awareness. They have also made reservations for the retreat and planned Advocacy Day.

XII. Equity Point Person
Some equity issues we talked about were Club Day, particularly the Haunted House, and the Task Forces. Everyone felt that there voice was heard and the ASLPC does not need any assistance from the Campus Change Network (CCN).

XIII. Announcements
• Ms. Bogue informed everyone that there will be a Measure I event in Pleasanton soon and wanted the body to spread awareness and attend if possible.
• Ms. Aboud wanted to know if anyone would be interested in carpooling for the Measure I event.
• Mr. Haastrup reminded everyone that we will be taking out group picture for the ASLPC website after the meeting.
• Mr. Portugal asked the body to present some ideas about the appreciation gifts and informed everyone that there will be a CBRC review date for the ICC.
• Ms. Ross would like to speak to the legislation subcommittee after the meeting.

XIV. Adjournment
