• Motion passes unanimously.

V. Officer Reports
President:
Ms. Bogue has been attending committee meetings and had an interview with the Express this week. She also attended Prep to Pass.

Vice President
Ms. Aboud has been working with Mr. Ansari for the Basketball Outreach and been making sure senators are completing all their work.

Director of Legislation
Mr. Marcelo has been researching which legislators to speak with about Proposition 30 next semester.

Director of Communications
Ms. Suarez has been collecting committee reports, finishing the minutes and working with Mr. Ansari and Ms. Aboud on the Basketball Outreach. She also worked Prep to Pass.

Director of Events
Ms. Mitchell has been working on organizing both Prep to Pass and Welcome Week as well as working with Mr. Pinedo on the Health and Safety Task Force.

ICC Chair
Mr. Portugal has been working with getting clubs ready for next semester, planning next semester’s big ICC Event and posted the ASLPC Procedures on the bulletin board.

Senator Reports
Ms. Reynoso reported that many senators have attended their committee meetings and working on a survey created by Mr. Cortina about online tools. Several of them also attended Prep to Pass.

Committee Reports
• Mr. Ansari attended Academic Senate in which they discussed the AA-T and AS-T degree deadlines and the college prerequisite policy. He also attended the Institutional Effectiveness Committee in which they discussed the proposed IEC change which has been submitted to College Council. They also had a discussion on whether the KPI’s fit the strategic goals from the mission statement.
• Mr. Azraei attended the Planning and Budgeting Committee in which they had a budget update.
• Mr. Fan attended Sustainability in which they discussed the new climate action plan for next year.
• Mr. Haastrup attended the Town meeting in which the Forensics Team promoted their events and Dr. Walthers presented a power point on the effects of Proposition 30.
Ms. Bogue attended the Board of Trustees in which they talked about different members being re-elected; they also presented a power point which discussed the impact international students had on LPC. She also attended Chancellor’s Council in which they discussed the budget models and the nursing programs. She also attended the Planning Task Force Committee in which they talked about how committees are formed and the difference between a committee, task force and work group.

Ms. Chavez attended the Student Learning Outcomes (SLO) Committee in which they worked on re-organizing the current SLO’s so they’ll be assessed properly. They are also working on ways to make sure students know what an SLO is.

Ms. Reynoso attended the Nike Funds Committee in which they discussed the different types of artwork that will be put around campus.

Mr. Portugal attended Campus Safety and Health in which they discussed Autism Awareness Day. He also went to District Curriculum in which they discussed they repeatability and repetition of classes and he attended Credit By Exam in which they talked about the exams a student can take that decides whether or not they have to take a class.

Mr. Cortina attended the VP of Administrative Services Hiring committee in which they had an open forum for the top three candidates.

Advisors Notes
Ms. Ross announced that classes have been added to the Spring semester and has been informed that the ASLPC will be able to move into the new office the second week of March. She also showed the members of the ASLPC the key cards everyone will need to have to enter the new office.

Student Trustee
Mr. Adhikari reported that at the Board of Trustees meeting they spent time re-electing several members and watched a power point about the impact international students had on LPC.

VI. Guest Speakers: NONE

VII. Public Forum: NONE

VIII. Old Business:
A. Canopies
Mr. Martinez showed the ASLPC the different options he found for canopies. Because most members of the ASLPC, including Mr. Martinez, were not comfortable with the options presented, it was concluded that there would be more research conducted.

B. Follow Ups
• Mr. Pinedo reported that the Health and Safety Task Force has been working on completing all the work needed for their big event, the Slut Walk.
• Mr. Portugal is waiting for Open Heart Kitchen to call him back about the ASLPC possibly working at one of their locations.
• Mr. Haastrup and the rest of the Campus Outreach Task Force have completed the senator video and will start working on the officer video next semester.
• Ms. Reynoso reported that the High School Outreach Task Force has attended several high schools and plan on returning closer to the registration date.
• Ms. Ross informed the senate that on February 13th there will be a basketball game against Chabot and it has been announced the official Coaches for Cancer game. She believes this game will be a perfect opportunity to fundraise money and every member should attend.
• Mr. Cortina would like every person in the senate to finish filling out all the surveys by Tuesday.

C. Letters and Resolutions: NONE

IX. New Business:

A. Nike Funds Committee
Ms. Reynoso presented the different options of artwork that the Nike Funds Committee has discussed on placing around campus. After some deliberation the overall consensus was that most of the body did not like most options.
• Mr. Lopez moved to extend time by 10 minutes.
• Mr. Haastrup seconded.
• Motion passes unanimously.
Mr. Marcelo suggested that the artwork that should be displayed around LPC should be work that is representative of the students. The ideas brought forth were murals, ethnic art, student work, art that reflects the campus community, and art representative and relatable to the buildings and statues around campus; Ms. Reynoso will report these ideas to the Nike Funds Committee.

B. Naked Magazine Ad
The prices for an ad in Naked Magazine are: $250 for a full page, $200 for 2/3 of a page, $125 for 1/3 of a page, $150 for ½ a page, $300 for double half pages, $500 for the back page and $350 for the inside front or back cover.
• Mr. Azraei moved to approve an up to amount of $500 for a Naked Magazine ad.
• Mr. Pinedo seconded.
Many members believed spending money on an ad was a waste of money. However, Mr. Haastrub voiced that having an ad could not hurt the ASLPC.
• Mr. Haastrub moved to extend time by 10 minutes.
• Mr. Azraei seconded.
• Motion passes unanimously.
In the past the ASLPC has had ads in the Express Newspaper and it has not been as successful as several thought it would be. Mr. Marcelo suggested that instead of an ad the ASLPC could make flyers and post them around campus. But many members saw it as an opportunity.
• Mr. Portugal moved to extend time by 10 minutes.
• Mr. Pinedo seconded.
• Motion fails with 10 in favor and 12 opposed.
It was decided that if the ASLPC did purchase an ad it would be one of the half pages or 1/3 of a page.
• Motion passes with 12 in favor, 9 opposed and 1 abstention.

C. Welcome Week
Ms. Mitchell moved to approve the Blanco Plan for Welcome Week
Mr. Haastup seconded.
Ms. Mitchell presented the Blanco Plan for Welcome Week on January 22\textsuperscript{nd} and 23\textsuperscript{rd}. There will be a pin-wheel game and a raffle. The supplies that will be available on the table are scantrons, green books, maps, senator packets and TLP applications. The food available will be doughnuts and fruit snacks along with water. It was suggested that the ASLPC ask GSA of the Psychology club if we could borrow their pinwheel.
Motion passes unanimously.
Mr. Haastup moved to extend time by 10 minutes.
Mr. Randhawa seconded.
Motion passes unanimously.
Ms. Mitchell moved to approve an up to amount of $400 for Welcome Week.
Mr. Pinedo seconded.
Ms. Mitchell presented the prices for the food on Welcome Week; it was decided to order more.
Mr. Lopez moved to amend the original motion and strike through an up to amount of $400 and insert an up to amount of $600.
Mr. Azraei seconded.
Motion passes unanimously.
Motion passes unanimously.

D. Prep to Pass Debrief
Ms. Mitchell reported that Prep to Pass went well both days and there was a great turnout from students and ASLPC members alike.

E. Semester Wrap Up
Ms. Bogue thanked everyone for an amazing semester and hopes for a greater semester next year and Ms. Ross congratulated the members of ASLPC for being outstanding stewards of the student’s money this semester.

X. Reflection
The members of ASLPC took time to reflect on the past week.

XI. Announcements
- Ms. Bogue announced there was a Forensics Team event later on in the day.
- Ms. Ross asked to meet with the officers after the meeting for the CBRC and Bylaws Quiz.
- Ms. Bogue reminded the body that Mr. Pinedo will not be returning next semester and that if anyone in interested in becoming Parliamentarian to send her a letter of intent by January 14\textsuperscript{th}; candidates will have an interview with her during the Winter Retreat. She also announced that she has made a decision on a new Vice President due to the fact that Ms. Aboud is resigning.

XII. Adjournment
