ECE TEACHERS
Don’t Miss This Opportunity!

Further Your Education and Professional Growth
Earn your bachelor’s degree as a part-time student at Cal State East Bay

Join the ECE Teacher Cohort at the Hayward Campus Human Development BA with Option in Early Childhood Development and
Teacher Education minor in Early Childhood Education

Applications for Fall 2008 ECE Teacher Cohort deadline: January 31, 2008

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE
Requirements for Every Child Counts First 5 Scholarship
- Currently working with children birth-5 years in Alameda County minimum nine months
- Work a minimum of 15 hours per week
- Meet CSU EastBay requirements for upper division transfer
- Commitment of 2-3 years to complete the Bachelor’s degree and Minor

For more information and an application for Alameda County First 5 ECE scholarship contact:  Edna Rodriggs ECE Professional Development Coordinator at CSUEast Bay, Hayward email: edna.rodriggs@csueastbay.edu  510-885-7293

In a cohort of other ECE professionals you will find support as you work towards your Bachelor’s degree at Cal State East Bay