

INTERNSHIP

Organization: Tri-Valley CAREs

Location: Livermore

Job Title: Community Organizing Intern

Job Description:

- Conduct outreach in Livermore and help organize Tri-Valley CAREs' events

Gain Experience In:

- Outreach-Phone members, flier in the community and table at community events such as: Diversity Day, the Farmers' Market and Make a Difference Day.
- Media- Basic skills in working with media (print, TV and radio), writing releases, PSA's and conducting media calls
- Event Logistics-General understanding of logistics required to put on a community event and help the Community Organizer plan mailing parties and monthly meetings
- Public Speaking- Experience in public speaking and will table the groups' literature at various venues, and more....

Benefits:

- Be part of the nuclear abolition movement locally, nationally and internationally
- Gain insight into environmental and citizen's monitoring work
- Use your speaking and writing skills, and more....

Qualifications/Requirements:

- Experience and interest in social justice campaigns
- Desire to work for positive change in the world
- Good communication and organizing skills
- Willingness to take on responsibility and complete assigned jobs or duties
- Reliable transportation, or willingness to take public transport to Livermore

Time Period: 2 -3 months

Pay/Credit: Internship is unpaid, though some transportation stipends are available. Credit for many majors can be arranged. Work study forms must be provided by the intern if applicable

Hours: Range from 12-32 hours/week (flexible)

Contact: Las Positas Internship Coordinator
Leslie Gravino @ (925) 424-1876