Good morning Maureen,

Please see the attached flyer for an AB 705 outreach event scheduled for our current students this Thursday (!). Student Services is asking for English faculty to please drop by the event to help answer student questions. I realize it's rather late notice – I just heard about it too – but perhaps you could coordinate coverage with the department faculty?

Thank you,

Hello Stuart,

I hope that you had a relaxing holiday weekend. Attached is a flyer a collaborative event to market AB 705 to the current student community. I was hoping that English faculty would be able to rotate some time to be available to answer questions about the English content, homework, etc. for interested students. The event is a drop-in event so there are no specific time commitments. Can you please share and solicit faculty that may be interested or have the time.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you.
