Getting Started: Finding an Evaluation Agency

NACES does not perform credential evaluations. However, our members do and can assist you with all your needs pertaining to evaluation services. They can answer all questions related to your specific situation and process. All our members are in good standing, and should be contacted directly for assistance. They are located across the US and work with clients electronically from around the world. Therefore there is no need to be in geographic proximity to an agency. See the directory of NACES members below.

NACES COVID-19 UPDATE

During this time of crisis many organizations are struggling to maintain normal operations and keep business as usual – members of NACES are no exception. Those NACES member agencies that have made changes to their normal operations or have closed temporarily, have updated their websites accordingly. It is our recommendation that you review the information posted on our members' websites and work with them to obtain the services you require.

With sincere wishes for an end to this crisis and your continued health,
Kenneth Warren, Chairperson, National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES)

Setting the standard of excellence for credential evaluation services since 1987
