PREAMBLE

The Las Positas College chapter of Phi Beta Lambda (LPC PBL) shall provide its members with opportunities to pursue and enhance their professional development whether they be in business or non-business related fields.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the organization shall be Las Positas College Phi Beta Lambda.

ARTICLE II

Affiliation

Section 1: LPC PBL shall be affiliated with Future Business Leaders of America – Phi Beta Lambda; both the National and California divisions.

Section 2: FBLA is a nonprofit 501 (c)(3) student organization committed to preparing today’s students for success in business.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1: Membership is limited to students who are registered and attending at least one class at Las Positas College. Discrimination on the basis of race, religion, national origin, socioeconomic status or physical limitation shall not be tolerated. All students are allowed to attend meetings but shall be considered non-active members.
The annual membership term runs from August 1 to July 31 of the following year. Students who apply to be a member must pay a fee of $30. This will cover their LPC PBL membership for their entire time at the school.

Students who cannot afford membership shall be provided an opportunity to waive their membership fees through a process decided by the current Executive Board.

Section 2: Active members are students who pay their dues. They are allowed to vote, be a part of a committee, and run for leadership positions. They shall also have access to chapter programs, FBLA-PBL programs and recognitions, conferences, other chapter sponsored events, and FBLA-PBL and chapter material.

ARTICLE IV

Meetings

Section 1: The chapter shall hold executive meetings and general meetings. The frequency and schedule of these meetings shall be determined by the executive board at an executive meeting and must be approved by a ⅔ vote of all active members present and all acting advisors.

Section 2: Active members are encouraged to wear business casual attire during general meetings.

Section 3: Quorum must be met for all executive meetings. Quorum is constituted by a simple majority (50% plus one) of the Executive Board and the presence of an advisor.

Section 4: Members shall be given appropriate time to speak on a given agenda item. Meeting procedures shall be decided by ⅔ of club members at the first meeting of the year.

ARTICLE V

Officers and Selections

Section 1: LPC PBL shall have thirteen officer positions. These shall be named in order of succession: President, Vice President of Internal Affairs, Vice President of External Affairs, Secretary, Inter-Club Council Representative, Historian, Director of Communications, Director of Finance, Director of Marketing, Director of Events, Director of Outreach, Director of Public Relations, and Director of Fun.

Section 2: The Executive Board shall consist of the officer positions named in Section 1.
Section 3: Officer elections shall be held on the second to last meeting of the academic year. Only active members attending that meeting shall be eligible to vote.

Section 4: All active members are eligible to run for officer positions.

Only students that have served at least one whole semester as an active member prior to the start Spring semester may run for the position of President and the Vice President positions.

Requirements:

- Must have above a 2.0 Cumulative GPA
- Must be enrolled in at least one LPC course.

Section 5: The position descriptions and requirements for application shall be announced on the third to last executive meeting of the academic year. On the next executive meeting, members shall announce their intent to run. A position can have a maximum of two candidates. In the event there are more than two applicants, two candidates shall be chosen by the Executive Board requiring a ¾ majority vote for each spot.

Interviews shall be held on the second to last meeting of the academic year. Candidates will be given two minutes for a speech, and then will submit to questions from the current Executive Board for three minutes. Active members will then submit their votes anonymously to the secretary or another officer once all candidates for a position have finished speaking.

The winners for each position shall be announced on the last meeting of the academic year.

The current Executive Board shall set a time to train the newly elected officers.

Section 6: The term of office shall begin from the moment the officer is selected until the next election. An officer may serve in the same office for up to one additional term.

In the event that no one runs for an office, the position shall be appointed to an individual chosen by the executive board by a majority vote, or if no individual fills the position, the position shall be open for election in the next Fall semester. This position can be chosen by a majority vote or any other process deemed necessary by the acting Executive Board.

If there is no one to fill a position, the responsibilities of that position shall be disbursed by the President to other positions.
