If you're an appointed senator at Las Positas's Student Government, you have the opportunity to apply for an advanced senator position.

The Las Positas College Student Government (LPCSG) Senate is comprised of thirty delegates who represent Las Positas College student interests at both the campus and district levels. Moreover, the LPC Student Government maintains four (4) standing advanced senator positions: Parliamentarian, Finance, Public Relations, and Programs and Services. At the time of application and throughout the term of office, each Advanced Senator must be enrolled in at least five (5) units at Las Positas College, have an overall (cumulative) GPA of at least 2.0, and be an LPCSG Member. Upon your approval as an official LPCSG senator, have attended and maintained proper attendance with appointed Office Hours and Governance Committee(s), and obtained approval signatures after scheduling an interview with both the President and Vice President of LPCSG, submit a completed application to the Student Life Office Program Coordinator, Josué Hernández, via email at jahernandez@laspositascollege.edu. Once your eligibility has been verified, the President will review your application. With the President's decision, your name will be placed as an item on the following week's LPCSG Student Senate Agenda for approval for an Advanced Senator Appointment.

The following is an outline of the required information within the letter of intent:

Letter of Intent: State any relevant information, including which position you are applying. You may also include your past experience, skills, attributes, and your goals for the position.

I have read the Advanced Senator process and certify that all the information I provided on this application is true to the best of my knowledge.
