LPC’s planning process offers opportunities for input by appropriate constituencies.

There are clear links between planning, resource allocation, and institutional evaluation.

LPC tracks progress being made on plans and evaluates its performance regularly.

LPC uses documented institutional assessment results to communicate matters of quality assurance to appropriate constituencies.

LPC systematically dialogues, reviews, and modifies, as appropriate, all parts of the planning cycle, including institutional and other research efforts.

The processes for implementation and revision of the curriculum are clearly understood by faculty and function as intended.

Faculty are provided with adequate opportunity to participate in the budget process.

Classified staff are provided with adequate opportunity to participate in the budget process.

There is consistency between institutional mission, goals, planning, and action.

The college (or segments of the college) engages in inclusive, informed, and intentional dialogue about the effectiveness of our processes and policies.

Changes to institutional processes and policies are guided by dialogue.

IIA Learning Programs and Services: Instructional Programs

Instructional programs are systematically assessed in order to assure currency, improve teaching and learning strategies, and achieve stated student learning outcomes.

The class schedule and college catalog are easy to understand and use.

English basic skills courses adequately prepare students for college level work.

Math basic skills courses adequately prepare students for college level work.

Computer skills courses meet the needs of the student population.

Learning skills courses meet the needs of special student populations (i.e., learning disabled, physically disabled).

Technical-vocational courses meet the needs of students interested in occupational job training.

The faculty has a major and effective role in design, implementation, and revision of the curriculum.

LPC is adequately providing educational programs in response to community interest.

The college offers appropriate general education courses to meet student needs.

The current instructional program review process is an effective method for determining appropriate curriculum changes and improvements.

Students completing programs demonstrate achievement of stated learning outcomes.

LPC ensures the academic rigor of its courses and programs.

LPC ensures the quality of instruction of its courses and programs.

LPC ensures the educational effectiveness of its courses and programs.

Grading is consistent with student learning and is based upon generally accepted norms or equivalencies.

IIB Learning Programs and Services: Support Services
