IV. Officer Reports

a. ICC Chairperson:
   Ms. Aboud has been organizing an inter-club Dodge Ball tournament. Rules for this tournament have been posted to the ICC Facebook group page, and were provided to all representatives present. Furthermore, Ms. Aboud has been working to mediate issues within clubs and is seeking to resolve any conflicts at this time.

b. ICC Secretary:
   Mr. Gray has discussed with the Student Life Assistant on proper formatting and structure for the ICC minutes. Mr. Gray stated that he feels a lot more competent after working with Ms. Moore.

c. AS President:
   Mr. Salehzadeh noted the success of Club Day on February 15 and congratulated the work of the ICC to organize this campus activity. In addition, Mr. Salehzadeh reminded all present at the ICC meeting that the deadline to apply for AS scholarships is March 15.
For more information on the application process, please go to the Las Positas Website.
Lastly, Mr. Salehzadeh brought up that \textit{March in March} will be this March 5. The ASLPC is organizing a bus to transport students to Sacramento. Students from the Community College, CSU, and UC systems gather on \textit{March in March} to advocate and protect public higher education.

d. AS Director of Events:
   Ms. Hrycaj was pleased with the participation of all members at Club Day, and offered her thanks for everyone’s hard work. Currently, Ms. Hrycaj stated that she is working on an AS Night to be held on campus, with more information to come.

e. Director of Student Life:
   Ms. Ross gave her recognition for all those who participated in Club Day. She thanked everyone, especially Ms. Hrycaj for, for their hard work. Ms. Ross then went on to remind the ICC that on March 29, Kimberly Lacy from HGTV was holding a free lunch on campus to talk to students. March 29, will be a faculty FLEX day. No instruction will be held.
f. Student Life Assistant:
Ms. Moore, addressed the ICC the importance of honoring any and all Facility Request forms. She went on to mention that clubs must notify her beforehand in the event of cancellation.

V. Guest Speakers:
Kendra Harris-Jordan came representing Diversified Family Services, a non-profit organization that volunteers to help struggling youth. Ms. Harris-Jordan mentioned that Diversified Family Services will be putting on auditions for a play to fundraise for sponsored families. Please contact Ms. Harris-Jordan at dfsn4@yahoo.com

Nico Portugal brought information about a campus Day of Action, to raise awareness of sexual assault. This event is planned to be held on campus April 3, from 11:00 A.M. – 2:15 P.M. Self-defense classes will be sponsored by Tri Valley Haven.

VI. Club Reports
Performing Arts Club: will be hosting an event on campus to promote students and their free expression on campus, Students Unite for Spotlight. This event will be held in the 1700 bldg. on March 7, from 11:30 A.M. – 2:00 P.M.

Health Club: is hosting Be Smart with Body Art. This event is a part of a larger campaign to bring awareness to Hepatitis C. This event will be held on campus on March 14, from 11:00 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.

International Students Club: has challenged the ASLPC to a soccer game. A date for this match will be made in the future. Members of the ICC will be invited to come.

Business Club: is offering their support to other clubs who are looking for assistance to market activates and advertising. Please contact the Business Club for further details into such a partnership.

Biology Club: Will be hosting a nature hike with a professional naturalist on March 11. Students are invited to come. Please contact the Biology Club for further details.
VII. Old Business

a. Club Activation/Deactivation

Proposal

Katie Jo Rodgess filled in for Christine Kelly in making a proposal for a Students for Sustainability club. This club seeks to foster a wider campus participation in the importance of the environment. Furthermore, Ms. Rodgess reiterated the importance of having a club on campus for students to reach a larger awareness of environmental issues on campus and in the community.

Robert Headly made a proposal to the ICC for a campus golf club. This club would be open to all students on campus who are seeking to learn more about golf, or play in recreational or competitive tournaments. Mr. Headly made it clear that beginners in golf would be welcome to the club.

Activation

Ms. Marcello and Ms. Wilson came back to the ICC with their proposal for the Chemistry Club. This club would be geared for all students who are looking to expand their knowledge of this science.

- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to activate the Chemistry Club
- AGS moved
- Math Club seconded
- Discussion: Ms. Aboud noted the previous statements by Ms. Marcello and Ms. Wilson that a Chemistry Club would be open to all students and bring a wider appreciation of its applied sciences on campus.
- Motion passed unanimously

Deactivation

- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to deactivate the Future Teachers’ Club.
- AGS moved
- International Students’ Club seconded
APPROVED

- Discussion: Ms. Aboud noted that, though unfortunate, the club members of the Future Teachers’ Club are currently looking for their deactivation. Ms. Aboud stated that the club members currently feel overwhelmed, and are perhaps seeking reactivation next semester. Ms. Aboud recommends for their deactivation.
- Motion passed unanimously.

b. Club Day Debriefing

Ms. Hrycaj spoke of the success of the first Club Day of the spring semester of campus. The theme of community love was well embraced by the clubs. Furthermore, having Panda Express cater the event on campus was met with a very positive reaction by the ICC, and student body. The food provided had a generally positive review overall. Prize winners for the best table on Club day were: Biology Club for first place, International Students’ Club for second; and Public Safety tied with the Performing Arts Club for third place.

Ms. Ross then clarified that clubs could not collect money at Club Day. Any money collected needed to be deposited at the 100 bldg. with appropriate forms immediately. Ms. Moore then added the proper guidelines to donate to charity, for clubs to comply with the community love theme. Proper documentation must be filled out before any clubs would be allowed to donate any money to an organization.
  - Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to approve and additional amount of $50 for Club Day prize money
  - AGS moved
  - Philosophy seconded
  - Discussion: Ms. Aboud noted that this extra $50 was needed because of the tie between Public Safety and the Performing Arts Club.
  - Motion passed unanimously

c. Bylaw

Ms. Aboud mentioned that the bylaw committee consisted of herself, the parliamentary of the ICC, the ASLPC President, and an ICC representative from the Philosophy Club. A very productive and equitable was made by those present. The changes to the ICC Bylaws will be made to the ICC next meeting. Changes will be emailed to ICC representatives beforehand to properly review the changed provisions. Ms. Aboud lastly stated that this process will be intended to minimize as much confusion as possible before a vote by the ICC.

VIII. New Business

a. ICC Dodge Ball

Ms. Aboud brought to the ICC a Dodge Ball tournament that would be held between clubs, at a later date on campus. She noted the success of the last Dodge Ball tournament, as well as the generally well received opinion of all those who participated at the last ICC Dodge Ball game.

- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to approve $275 dollars in prize money for an Dodge Ball tournament.
- Gay-Straight Alliance moves
- AGS seconded
- Discussion: Prize money will be awarded to clubs who win first place, second, and third in the tournament; prizes will be awarded $100, $75, $50 dollars respectively. Furthermore, two prizes of $25 will be awarded to the clubs that are most spirited and best dressed. Ms. Aboud clarified any confusion that clubs who win prize money for first, second, or third place cannot are not eligible for the later two prizes of $25.
- Motion passed unanimously

Ms. Aboud also sought to provide food and refreshments that would be complimentary to all of those who participated at the ICC Dodge Ball tournament. Ms. Aboud then went over the important rules to be understood for all those who participate the Dodge Ball tournament. Please contact Ms. Aboud for a copy of these rules prior to the game.

- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to approve up to $100 to be used for food and refreshments
- AGS moved
- Gay-Straight Alliance seconded
  Ms. Aboud entertained a Motion to extend time by 5 minutes
  - AGS moves
  - Performing Arts Club seconded
  - Motion passed unanimously
- Discussion: All those who participate would be given these complimentary items. Ms. Aboud felt that it would be a great idea to encourage more club members to participate after last semester.
- Motion passed with one opposition

A general consensus was then reach by the ICC that any Dodge Ball tournament was to be held on a Friday, from 11:00 A.M. – 2:30 P.M. The ICC expressed a general consensus that this date was to be made on Friday, March 16.

IX. Announcements

- Ms. Ross announced that Las Positas pennants were made, and to be given out to the campus at the behest of Campus President Dr. Walthers. Please contact Ms. Ross for complimentary pennants.

- Journalism Club raised $75 at their last bake sale. The money raised will be used to help club members go to a conference, geared toward journalism, in Burbank, California.

X. Adjournment
