VI. Guest Speakers: None

VII. Public Forum: None

VIII. Club Reports

Physics and Astronomy Club: The president of Physics and Astronomy Club, Mr. Hayden, informed the ICC of the star gazing night on September 23 for Physics and Astronomy Club. There will be pizza and drinks and high powered telescopes.

IBA: There is a virtual stock exchange competition for IBA. Also, there will be a guest speaker on September 21 from 2 p.m.-3 p.m. in the Club Room to speak about helping Africa's economy.

Danza Ryu Jujitsu: On September 17 there will be a Hawaiian Martial Arts event in the gym.

MAC: A Palestinian speaker came and 80 people showed up to the event.

HOTT: On November 11 there will be a Plant Sale.

Journalism Club: Will be having a fundraising event with downtown Livermore.

FACE: Would like to put on a Walk-a-thon in October, but is unsure of a date at the moment. Also, FACE made an announcement about Smart Pens. The pens record lectures while students are taking notes in class. For more information about Smart Pens, go to the front desk in the library.

IX. Old Business

A. Club Activation/ Deactivation

Ms. Aboud informed the ICC about the possible activation of a club for students interested in biology to give medical students more experience. The club will focus on helping students find internships and gaining more experience with biology-related business. At the next club meeting, the ICC will be voting on activation.

The Computer Science Club is up for deactivation. The ICC Chair needs to email the Club Advisor to inform them.

X. New Business

A. Adopt A Campus

Mr. Salehzadeh stated that clubs can adopt a different section of the campus and take care of it. This is an opportunity for the clubs to get involved in community service.

Ms. Ross congratulated everyone on a great and successful year. She also acknowledged the increased level of participation.

B. Club Rush Debriefing

The clubs found Club Rush to be a great success and gained many signatures. There were some concerns about the booths being next to the construction, and some suggestions were made about having future club events by the cafeteria. Ms. Aboud thought it went well and praised clubs on doing a good job at getting so many emails and signatures.

C. Sports Clubs

Ms. Ross informed the ICC about once having sports clubs. Las Positas College may have sports clubs again but with a few changes to the rules. The clubs would have to have regular club meeting outside of practice, and they would need to be at a consistent time where anyone could attend. Ms. Aboud volunteered to draft Club Sports Rules and Guidelines.

APPROVED

D. Club Day

Ms. Harris informed the ICC that Club Day will be Constitution themed, and prize money will be awarded to the top three clubs.

Ms. Aboud explained that Club Day is a more elaborate Club Rush with free food and music for the students. Competition Guidelines can be found on the Student Club web site.

Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to approve $250 for Club Day prizes.

MAC moved to approve $250 for Club Day prizes.

AGS seconded.

Motion passed unanimously.

XI. Announcements

GSA stated that the GSA/SAFE club is still active and seeking new members.

Contact Matthew Gray if you are interested in joining.

Journalism stated that they have fundraiser coming up soon and will be in downtown Livermore. Details and more information will be coming soon.

XII. Adjournment
