IX. Old Business

A. Club Activation/ Deactivation

Activation:
  • Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to activate Clinton Global Initiative.
  • AGS moved to activate Clinton Global Initiative
  • Philosophy Club seconded.

Discussion:
Ms. Aboud stated that she thought they would be great on campus since Global Hope is no longer a club.
  • Motion passed unanimously.

Proposal:
Sunny proposed a Bhangra Club. The purpose of this club is to spread and raise awareness of the Bhangra culture, and that they hope to have events in the quad where they would be performing Bhangra dances to show students what it is.

Deactivation:
- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to deactivate Poetry Club.
- AGS moved to deactivate Poetry Club.
- International Students seconded.

Discussion:
Ms. Aboud stated that she had sent the club president an email letting them know that they have an excessive amount of absences putting them up for deactivation and she got no response from the club.
- Motion passed unanimously.

- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to deactivate Computer Science Club.
- AGS moved to deactivate Computer Science Club.
- Performing Arts seconded.

Discussion:
Ms. Aboud wasn’t aware of Computer Science’s ICC rep present at the meeting and encouraged everyone not to deactivate them since they are here and understand why they were up for deactivation.
- Motion Failed unanimously.

B. Dodgeball

Ms. Aboud stated that the dodge ball tournament had been cancelled due to weather and facilities issues. Ms. Aboud announced that Friday March 30th was available from 11-12:15 or April 20th with a possible time change. Since there is a time crunch for this event the games would be around 5 minutes each and will apply a sudden death rule if the match is running out of time. Ms. Aboud reminded clubs that the 1st place winner will be getting $100, 2nd place will get $75, 3rd will get $50, best dressed will get $25, and best loser will get $25 for their clubs.

- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to extend time by 2 minutes.
- IBA moved to extend time by 2 minutes.
- Philosophy Club seconded.
- Motion passed unanimously.

Ms. Aboud took a consensus for which day to plan for the dodge ball tournament. An overwhelming consensus was in favor for April 20th either at 11 or 4/5. Ms. Aboud lastly stated that she will confirm the times before she chooses on one.
C. Bylaws
Ms. Aboud stated that she received corrections from Philosophy Club and Math Club.
- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to approve the bylaws with said changes.
- Philosophy Club moved to approve the bylaws with said changes.
- Clinton Global Initiative (CGI) seconded.
Discussion:
Ms. Aboud announced that she’ll send them out again and that she will also send them to Mrs. Moore to properly format them.
- Motion passed unanimously.

X. New Business

A. Secretary Appointment
- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to approve Nico Portugal as ICC Secretary.
- AGS moved to approve Nico Portugal as ICC Secretary.
- Business Club seconded.
- Motion passed unanimously.

B. Club Day
Ms. Hrycaj announced that Club Day will be on April 25th from 11-2 in the quad area.
Ms. Hrycaj stated that ICC needs to discuss and pick a theme and encouraged a Carnival theme. A consensus was taken between having a Carnival theme or an Olympic theme, and there was an overwhelming consensus for a Carnival theme. Ms. Hrycaj passed around a sign-up sheet for any club who thinks that they’d be interested in participating in the Carnival theme Club Day.
- Ms. Aboud entertained a motion to extend time by 5 minutes.
- Philosophy Club moved to extend time by five minutes.
- AGS seconded.
- Motion passed unanimously.
Ms. Aboud and the ICC discussed the layout for Club Day and decided that they’ll bring this topic back to the next ICC meeting.
- AGS moved to approve $225 for Club Day prizes.
- Math club seconded.
- Motion passed unanimously.

XI. Announcements
Ms. Aboud asked the ICC reps to talk to their clubs about whether or not they believe the ICC meeting time should be changed, and to bring it back to the next ICC meeting.

Mr. Portugal stated that any club reps that walked in late should see him after the meeting since he is unfamiliar with everyone. Mr. Portugal also passed out Take Action Day flyers and encouraged clubs to promote and attend this event.

Mrs. Ross announced that there will be an Internship program in the summer with local businesses on Thursday April 19th from 3-5 in the black box. Mrs. Ross also stated that all active ICC reps need to be sitting at the table not along the side wall.

IBA announced that it is opening night for God Spell, and that it is $10 for LPC students and $15 for everyone else.

AGS stated that if anyone would like more Neon Night flyers to see her after the meeting.
