Con't - Welcome to Student Services

*Kristi Vanderhoof;
Career Center Coordinator*

Fun Fact: She got her first job at LPC as an instructional assistant and English teacher back in 2013 through a “Skype” interview while teaching English in Oaxaca, Mexico. She also plays the ukulele.

*Julie Nguyen;
General Counselor*

Fun Fact: Julie comes to us from San Jose City College. She love cats and their weird habits. She has two cats named Rick and Mocha.

Jennifer Tomm;

VRC Counselor Assistant

Fun Fact: While Jenn was a child of the 80’s, she knows very little pop culture or 80s movie’s references. She attributes this to growing up on a farm where she didn’t have access to a movie theater.

Lisette Rocha;

Financial Aid Outreach Specialist

Fun Fact: She is bilingual in English and Spanish, if she could have any superpower, it would be to know every language so she could connect with and understand others.

SHOUT OUT!

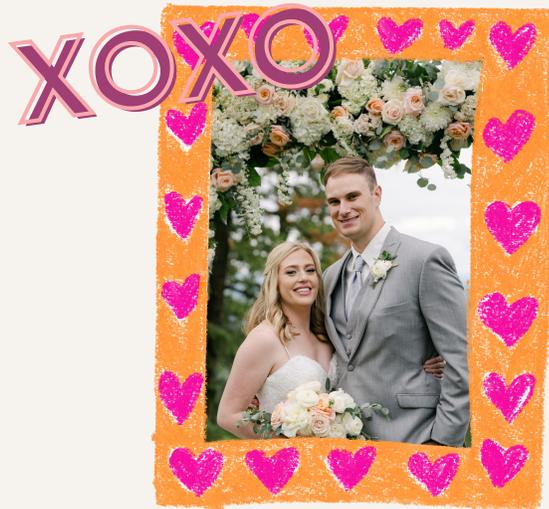

VPSS Office - Student Assistant
Cate Goldsberry
Awarded Scholarship in Creative
Writing;

Our student assistant, Cate, has been writing and creating stories for years. Recently she decided to apply for the Tri-Valley Writers Scholarship. She won the award and felt honored to receive accolades for her writing. This reinforces the direction she wants to go with her career goals and gets her writing more exposure. Cate said, "I am so grateful to have my work recognized after years of refining my style and voice." She is currently working on a collection of short horror stories, a fantasy novel, and several original songs, and plans to go into creative writing and editing as her major.

LPC 32ND ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT 2022

After two years of Covid-19 plaguing the world, we were back for our 32nd Annual Commencement Ceremony 2022 in person!

As you know Julie Thornburg retired, passing the baton and her task list to Yvette Nahinu, New Executive Assistant & Commencement Coordinator. Yvette jumped right in, and thanks to the help of seasoned volunteers & eager newbies, was able to execute two amazing ceremonies. It went off without a hitch, come join the fun next year.

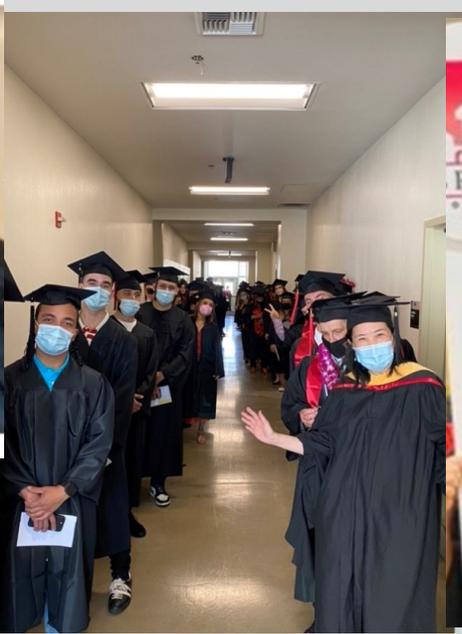

"Yvette is grateful and apprecitive for all the help she received for her first commencement at LPC".

Commencement Time with our Grad Central Team

They did an amazing job of decorating the Tutorial Center for our graduating students. Looks like they also had a great time in the process. Yes, your are seeing correctly the year was transposed, lol. It is a Covid year afterall.
