Online Learning

Most on-campus courses at LPC have moved to online instruction via Canvas. Instructors for many of those courses will be using the web conferencing system ConferZoom within Canvas. View ConferZoom Student Information. Also within Canvas is a feature called Ally that allows students to download files in alternative formats. This is especially helpful for students with disabilities. If you are new to online learning, see Preparing for Online Learning.

The Online Learning program at Las Positas College offers students the convenience of completing their educational goals at a distance. If you are enrolled in an online course, all class sessions, materials, and exercises are available any time of the day or night for you. All of your coursework is done virtually. Simply log into your course through a web browser, and you're in class!

The learning management system Canvas is the hub for online learning at LPC.
