- Students can earn college credit for working in a job, internship, or steady volunteer position. If your work is related to your major, enroll in WRKX 94 Occupational Work Experience/Internship. If your work is unrelated to your major, enroll in WRKX 95 General Work Experience. Depending on the number of hours you work, you can earn up to six or eight units each semester. You must work 75 paid hours or 60 unpaid hours per unit. Units are transferrable to CSU. Learn more at the Work Experience website.
- The Counseling Department will help guide you in your major selection, create an educational plan and develop skills to succeed in college.
- The Tri-Valley Career Center offers assessments, workshops, 1-on-1 assistance and those ever-important employer connections. It helps job seekers succeed in their search and offers local employers recruitment assistance and a variety of services.
