Through leadership, innovation, and collaboration, Las Positas College is creating clear pathways to improve the workforce and economy of our community. To support this goal, we have established a new Work-Based Learning Initiative—a collaboration with local business and industry to develop career and work experience opportunities, internships and mentoring programs, and community work and study placements directly related to a vocational field of training. This partnership benefits both employers and students, ensuring a talent pipeline of skilled workers from our college to the workplace and reinforcing and expanding students' classroom learning.

Work-Based Learning Benefits to Employers

- Obtain an expanded pool of qualified applicants.
- Recruit and screen potential employees.
- Evaluate potential employees in work settings, prior to hiring.
- Develop a quick, reliable source of skilled labor.
- Meet contractual and legal obligations for Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity.
- Improve the quality of life and work skills in the community.
- Reduce turnover of entry-level employees.
- Influence curriculum development to meet industry requirements.

Work-Based Learning Benefits to Students

- Earn income and gain work experience while attending college.
- Get access to good jobs.
- Develop contacts to broaden employment options.
- Build self-confidence and experience success at college and work.

- Gain individualized support for educational and professional needs and goals.
