

NOMINATED BY: BIOLOGY AND CHEMISTRY FACULTY

NOMINEES:

CINDY BLACK – BRANDON BUTLER – GERRY GIRE – GARY WILKES

Cindy, Brandon, Gerry, and Gary form the wonderful team of lab technicians who accomplished moving the Biology and Chemistry teaching laboratories into new spaces spread across two buildings. They completed this astonishing task by squeezing even more work into their already legendary efficiency and professionalism of delivering over 60 different labs each week to the students. We doubled their responsibilities by opening an extra entire building without giving them any additional resources. They rose to the occasion, as always, with extra hours, attention to detail, and concern only for the needs of students, faculty and each other.

For their teamwork, creativity, patience, and humor in extraordinary times, Cindy, Brandon, Gerry, and Gary exemplify what's right at LPC. We are truly in awe of their dedication and performance.

NOMINATED BY: ACADEMIC SENATE EXEC. BOARD

NOMINEES: CURRICULUM COMMITTEE – List Below

Every year, the Curriculum Committee requires dedication, attention to detail, patience, and time. This year, the Curriculum Committee requires all these qualities plus additional focus necessitated by changes that have led to an incredible flow of curriculum.

At the same time that the state required Transfer Model Curriculum, the Course Identification Numbering System, and limits on repeatability, Las Positas College adopted new, larger divisions and a new curriculum program, CurricuNET.

All of these have led to more work for our valiant Curriculum Committee, as they guide faculty to approved and articulated course outlines, certificates, and degrees. Led by Chair Jeremiah Bodnar, the Curriculum Committee faces all these challenges with patience, with a calm philosophical perspective, and with good humor.

The Executive Board of the Academic Senate salutes each and every member of the Curriculum Committee for a job well done.
