About Las Positas College

Las Positas College is located in Livermore, California approximately 40 miles southeast of San Francisco amid one of California's fastest growing regions for business, science, and technology. Located in the scenic background of vineyards, the College's 147-acre campus enrolls nearly 9,000 students and offers over 65 associates degrees and over 50 certificate programs for career preparation, transfer to a four-year college or university, or personal enrichment.

Las Positas College provides flexible class schedules with online and evening class and the opportunity for high school students in the 10th, 11th or 12th to enroll concurrently in college-level courses. The College is ranked among the top 10 for transfer rates among California community colleges with guaranteed admission to over 30, four-year universities, including University of California and California State Universities. Las Positas College offers a quality education with experienced faculty, rigorous academics, modern learning facilities, and small class sizes which allows our students to reach their educational goals.
